

REPORT ON DIWALI COMPETITIONS

Date: 16th Oct 2025

Cultural Club

University College of Management,
JNTUH – Hyderabad.

The Cultural Club of University College of Management, JNTUH – Hyderabad, organized Diwali-themed cultural competitions on campus from 14th October to 16th October to enhance student involvement in festive traditions and promote creative expression.

Day 1 – 14th October : Painting Competition

The three-day celebration began with a Painting Competition held from 4:30 PM to 5:30 PM, with five students participating. The participants presented Diwali-centric concepts reflecting cultural values. The event was conducted smoothly in the UCMH Block under the supervision of the Cultural Club.

Day 2 – 15th October : Rangoli Competition

The second day featured a Rangoli Competition from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM, with four participants showcasing vibrant and traditional Rangoli designs. The competition helped create a festive ambiance while encouraging aesthetic talent among students. The activity was monitored and evaluated by faculty members.

Day 3 – 16th October : Diya Decorating Competition

On the final day, a Diya Decorating Competition was organized from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM, with eleven teams participating. Each team creatively decorated diyas using traditional motifs, beads, colors, and artistic craft materials.

Following the competition, the decorated diyas were auctioned within the campus as part of the celebration. The revenue collected was distributed transparently, where 25% of the total proceeds was contributed to the Cultural Club, and the remaining 75% was distributed among the respective participating teams based on their auction earnings. This initiative encouraged entrepreneurship, teamwork, and recognition of student effort.

For all events, the Principal and Faculty Members evaluated the works based on creativity, theme relevance, presentation quality, and overall execution. Winners were formally announced, prizes were awarded, and certificates were presented to all participants as appreciation for their active involvement.

The Diwali competition series concluded successfully with enthusiastic student participation, efficient coordination by the Cultural Club, and continuous support from faculty and administration. The events added cultural vibrancy to the campus while strengthening student engagement and festive spirit.
